REVAMPING THE SECURITIES ACT AND FUTURES MARKET ACT

Objective

Achieve a simple, rational, internally consistent and straight forward law capable of being easily understood, implemented and enforced — a boon for market players, all consequential beneficiaries, and the regulators.

Areas for Discussion

- (i) Identify impediments in the laws which hamper growth of businesses or create practical difficulties, hinder ease of doing business or impact cost of business;
- (ii) Procedural or overly prescriptive requirements that could be removed/ improved;
- (iii) Reforms to encourage technological innovation, digitization;
- (iv) Regulatory impediments relating to introduction or dissemination of Islamic finance products;
- (v) Provisions that adversely affect investor protection;
- (vi) Areas for development and improvements in market infrastructure; and
- (vii) Regulatory impediments that currently hamper capital formation in Pakistan.
