Revised Trading Fee & Rebate Scheme

PMEX endeavors to provide a vibrant and diverse marketplace for all market participants to trade local commodities and other global products. In this regard, the Exchange has been successful in expanding the product suite, inducting liquidity in the market, increasing its footprint in Lahore and Islamabad by opening branches and creating awareness among the market participants about futures trading, etc.

Furthermore, the Exchange is also working on various other initiatives such as redesigning of its technology architecture and introducing next generation electronic trading system in line with latest technological trends. The Exchange is confident that with the improvement in technology, brokers as well as their clients will enjoy a more faster, reliable and efficient trading experience in line with international practices.

Considering the above and to ensure efficient services to our clients at all times, PMEX has decided to revise the trading fee. The revised trading fee is attached in Annexure A.

Moreover, in the better interest of the market participants, the Exchange has also revised the rebate scheme for its brokers. The revised scheme is attached in Annexure A.

Both the revised trading fee and new rebate scheme will be effective from November 01, 2017. All Brokers are requested to take note of above and inform their clients accordingly.
