

Notification No.: PMEX/MKT, BD&CSS/2023/36 October 09, 2023

Suspension of Trading Rights of M/s. MAS Commodities (Pvt.) Limited

Attention of all concerned is drawn towards Clause 7(2) of the Futures Brokers (Licensing and Operations) Regulations, 2018 which states that:

"In case a futures broker fails to meet the minimum net-worth requirement, the futures exchange shall allow a period of 30 calendar days to the futures broker to comply with the minimum capital requirement, failing which the futures exchange shall restrict the trading facility of such futures broker and its licence shall be suspended by the Commission without prejudice to any other disciplinary action under the Act and these regulations."

All market participants are hereby informed that M/s. MAS Commodities (Pvt.) Limited has failed to submit its audited Net Worth as at September 08, 2023, despite lapse of 30 calendar days' notice period issued to it.

Consequently, in compliance with the aforesaid regulatory requirements, the trading rights of above TRE Certificate Holder have been suspended with immediate effect till further notice.

The above must be noted for information and record purposes.
